

NORTH CAROLINA HOMICIDE INVESTIGATORS ASSOCIATION EXHIBITOR CONTRACT INFORMATION

Exhibitor Prospectus

In June of 1994, the North Carolina Homicide Investigators Association (NCHIA) was formed when law enforcement officials saw a need to meet and discuss several unsolved murders with similar characteristics. The first association meeting included local, state, federal investigators as well as lab technicians and analysts. We now serve a membership of over 200 law enforcement officers and provide biannual training conferences. These conferences are an excellent opportunity for exhibitors to interact with law enforcement professionals.

Sponsorship Levels

Gold Level

With a minimum donation of $800.00, exhibitors will be allowed to attend the conference and have a designated area to have a display of your company during the conference.

Platinum

With a minimum donation of $1000.00, exhibitors will be given the same privileges as Gold Level companies. Additionally, Platinum exhibitors will receive 15 minutes to make a presentation to the entire association.
